JOINT HOLDERS OF SHARES
Joint Holders	18.	Where two or more persons are registered as the holders of any share they hold the same as joint tenants with benefit of survivor-ship subject to the following provisions and to the other provisions of these Articles relating to joint holders:-
Maximum number	(a)	The Company shall not be bound to register more than three persons as the joint holders of any share.

Liability several as well as joint	(b)	The joint holders of a share shall be liable severally as well as jointly in respect of all payments due in respect of such shares.
Survivors of Joint holders only recognized	(c)	On the death of any one of such joint holders the survivor or survivors shall be the only person or persons recognized by the Company as having any title to or interest in such shares but the Board may require such evidence of death as it may deem fit.
Delivery of certificate	(d)	Only the person whose name stands first in the Register as one of the joint holders of any share shall be entitled to delivery of the certificate relating to such share.
CALLS
Calls	19.	The Board of Directors may, from time to time, subject to the terms on which any share may have been issued and subject to the applicable provisions of the Act, make such calls as they think fit upon the members in respect to all moneys unpaid on the shares held by them respectively and not by the conditions of allotment thereof made payable at fixed times. Such calls need not to be of uniform amount. Each member shall pay the amount of every call so made on him to the person and at the time and place appointed by the Directors. A call may be made payable by installments and shall be deemed to have been made at time when the resolution of the Directors authorising such call was passed at a meeting of Board.
Restriction on make	20.	No call shall be made within one Month of the date when the last power to preceding call was made payable, not less than fourteen days calls notice of any call shall be given specifying the time and place of payment and to whom such call shall be paid. Provided that, before the time for payment of such call the Board, may, by notice in writing to the members, revoke the same or extend the time for payment thereof.
When Interest on call or installment	21.	If the sum payable in respect of any call or installment be not paid on or before the day appointed for payment thereof, the holder for the time being, of the shares in respect of which the call shall have been made or the installment shall be due, shall pay interest for the same at such rate determined by the Board but not exceeding 10% (Ten per cent) per annum from the day appointed for the payment thereof upto the time of the actual payment. The Directors shall be at liberty to waive payment of any such interest wholly or in part.
Amount payable at fixed time payable by installments calls	22.	If by the terms of issue of any share or otherwise any amount is made payable at any fixed time or by installments at fixed times, whether on account of the amount of the shares or by way or premium, every such amount or installment shall be payable as if it was a call duly made by the Directors and of which due notice has been given, and all the provisions herein contained in respect of calls shall relate to such amount of installments accordingly.

Evidence in actions by the Company against shareholders	23.	On the trial or hearing of any action or suit brought by the Company against any shareholder or his representatives to recover any debt or money claimed to be due to the Company in respect of his share(s), it shall be sufficient to prove that the name of the defendant is or was, when the claim arose, not entered on the Register or the Company as a holder, or one of the holders, of the shares in respect of which such claim is made, that the amount claimed is not entered as paid in the books of the Company and it shall not be necessary to prove the appointment of the Directors who made any call or that a quorum of Directors was present at the meeting at which any call was made or that meeting at which any call was made was duly convened or constituted, or any other matter whatsoever, but the proof of the matters aforesaid shall be conclusive evidence of the debt.
Payment of calls in advance	24.	The Directors may, if they think fit, receive from any member willing to advance the same, all or any part of the money due upon the share held by him beyond the sums actually called for and upon the money so paid in advance, or so much thereof as, from, time to time exceeds the amount of the calls then made upon the shares in respect to which such advance has been made: the Company may pay interest at such rate as the members paying such sum in advances and the Directors agree upon but not exceeding, unless the Company in a General Meeting shall otherwise direct, 12% (twelve per cent) and the Directors may at any time repay the amount so advanced upon giving to such member three Months' notice in writing. Money paid in advance of calls shall not in respect thereof confer a right to dividend or to participate in the profits or the Company.
Revocation of calls	25.	A call may be revoked or postponed at the direction of the Board of Directors.
If call or installment not paid notice may be given	26.	If any member fails to pay any call or installment on or before the day appointed for the payment of same the Directors may at any time thereafter during such time as the call or installment remains unpaid, serve a notice on such member requiring him to pay the same together with any interest that may have accrued along with any expenses that may have been incurred by the Company by reasons of such non- payment.
Form of notice	27.	The notice aforesaid shall name a further day (not being less than thirty days from the day of notice) and place or places on and at which such call or installment and such interest and expenses as aforesaid are to be paid. The Notice shall also state that in the event of non-payment on or before the time and at the place appointed, the shares in respect of which such call was made or installment is payable will be liable to be forfeited.

If notice not complied with shares may be forfeited	28.	If such notice as aforesaid be not complied with; any shares in respect of which such notice has been given may, at any time thereafter before payment of all calls or installments, interest and expenses due in respect thereof has been made, be forfeited by a resolution of the Directors to that effect. Such forfeiture shall include all dividends declared in respect of the forfeited shares and not actually paid before the forfeiture. Neither the receipt by the Company of a portion of any money which shall from time to time be due from any member of the Company in respect of his shares, either by way of principle or interest, nor any indulgence granted by the Company in respect of the payment of any such money shall preclude the forfeiture of such shares as herein provided.
Notice after forfeiture	29.	When any share(s) have been so forfeited, notice of forfeiture shall be given to the member in whose name it stood immediately prior to the forfeiture and an entry of the forfeiture with the date thereof, shall forthwith be made in the Register, but no forfeiture shall be in any manner be invalidated by any omission or failure to give such notice or to make such entry as aforesaid.
Forfeited shares to become property of the Company	30.	Any share(s) so forfeited shall be deemed to be the property of the Company and the Directors may sell, re-allot or otherwise dispose of the same in such manner as they think fit.
Power to annul forfeiture	31.	The Directors may, at any time before any share so forfeited shall have been sold, re-allot or otherwise disposed off, annul forfeiture thereof upon such manner as they think fit. The forfeited shares shall be disposed off in accordance with the provisions of the Applicable Laws.
Liability on forfeiture	32.	Any member whose share(s) have been forfeited shall cease to be a member in respect of the forfeited shares but shall notwithstanding anything be liable to pay and shall forthwith pay to the Company all calls, installments, interest and expenses owing upon or in respect of such shares, at the time of the forfeiture together with interest thereon, from the time of forfeiture until payment at the rate of 12% (Twelve per cent) per annum and the Directors may enforce payment thereof without any deduction or allowance for the value of the shares at the time of forfeiture, but shall not be under any obligation to do so.
Effect of forfeiture	33.	The forfeiture of share shall involve the extinction of all interest in and also of all claims and demands against the Company in respect of the share and all other rights incidental to the share, except only such of those rights as by these Articles are expressly saved.

Evidence of forfeiture	34.	A duly verified declaration in writing that the declarant is a Director of the Company and that certain shares of the Company have been duly forfeited on a date stated in the declaration, shall be conclusive evidence of the facts therein stated as against all persons claiming to be entitled to the share and such declaration and the receipt of the Company for the consideration, if any given for the shares on the sale or disposition thereof shall constitute a good title to such shares and the person to whom the shares are sold shall be registered as the holder of such shares and shall not be bound to see to the application of the purchases money, nor shall his title to such shares be affected by any irregularity or invalidity in the proceedings in reference to such forfeiture, sale or disposition.
Company's lien on forfeiture	35.	The Company shall have a first and paramount lien upon all the shares (other than fully paid shares) registered in the name of each member (whether solely or jointly with others) and upon the proceeds of sale thereof for all moneys (whether presently payable or not) called or payable at a fixed time in respect of such shares and no equitable interest in any share shall be created except upon the condition that such lien shall extend to all dividends and bonuses, from time to time declared in respect of such shares. Unless otherwise agreed to, registration of a transfer of shares shall operate as a waiver of the Company's lien, if any, on such shares.
As to enforcing lien by sale	36.	The Company may sell, in such manner as the Board thinks fit, any shares on which the Company has a lien. Provided that no sale shall be made:
	(a)	Unless a sum in respect of which the lien exists in presently payable, or
	(b)	Until the expiry of thirty days, after a notice in writing stating and demanding payment of such part of the amount in respect of which the lien exists as a presently payable, has been given to the registered holder for the time being of the share or the persons entitled thereto by reason of his death or insolvency.
	37(1)	To give effect to any such sale, the Board may authorize some person to transfer the shares sold to the purchaser thereof.
	(2)	The purchaser shall be registered as the holder of the shares comprised in any such transfer.
	(3)	The purchaser shall not be entitled to see the application of the purchase money, nor shall his title to the shares be affected by any irregularity or invalidity in the utilization of the proceeds of the sale.

Application of sale proceeds	38(1)	The proceeds of the sale shall be received by the Company and applied in payment of such part of the amount in respect of which the lien exists, as is presently payable.
	(2)	The residue, if any, shall, subject to a like lien for sums not presently payable as existed upon the shares before the sale, be paid to the person entitled to the shares at the date of the sale.
Directors may issue new certificates	39	Where any shares under the powers in that behalf, herein contained are sold by the Directors and the certificate thereof has not been delivered to the Company by the former holder of the said shares, subject to Applicable Law the Directors may issue a new certificate for such shares distinguishing it in such manner as they may think fit from the certificate not so delivered. Where in any such case the certificate in respect of the share forfeited and/or sold is not delivered and a new certificate for such share has been issued, the original certificate shall be treated as cancelled and no claim or title based on such certificate shall be binding on the Company.
TRANSFER AND TRANSMISSION
Execution of transfer of shares	40(i)	Request for effecting transfer of shares, shall be processed in accordance with the Section 56 of the Act, the rules and such other conditions as may be prescribed under Applicable Law including the provisions of the Depositories Act. The transferor shall be deemed to remain a member in respect of such share until the name of the transferee is entered in the Register in respect thereof.
	(ii)	Every instrument of transfer of shares shall be in the form prescribed under the Applicable Law and shall be in accordance with the relevant provisions of the Applicable Law, from time to time.
	(iii)	No fee shall be charged for transfer of shares/ debentures or for effecting transmission or for registering any letters of probate, letters of administration and similar other documents.
Application for transfer	41.	Subject to Applicable Law, an application for the registration of the transfer of shares may be made either by the transferor or the transferee provided that, where such application is made by the transferor, on registration, it shall in the case of partly paid shares, be effective unless the Company gives notice of the application to the transferee in the manner prescribed by applicable provisions of the Act and subject to provision of these Articles, the Company shall, unless objection is made by the transferee within two weeks from the date of receipt of the notice, enter in the Register of Members the name of the transferee in the same manner and subject to the same conditions as if the application for registration was made by the transferee.

Notice of transfer to registered holder	42.	Subject to compliance with applicable laws, before registering any transfer tendered for registration the Company may, if it deems fit, give notice by letter posted in the ordinary course to the registered holder that such transfer deed has been lodged and that, unless objections are taken it will be registered and if such registered holder fails to lodge an objection in writing at the office of the Company within fifteen days from the posting of such notice to him, he shall be deemed to have admitted the validity of the said transfer. Where no notice is received by the registered holder, the Company shall be deemed to have decided not to give notice and in any event the non-receipt by the registered holder of any notice shall not entitle him to make any claim of any kind against the Company in respect of such non- receipt.
Indemnity against wrongful transfers	43.	Neither the Company nor its directors shall, incur any liability for registering or acting upon a transfer of shares apparently made by sufficient parties, although the same may, by reason of any fraud or other cause not known to the Company or its Directors be legally inoperative or insufficient to pass the property in the shares proposed or professed to be transferred, and although the transfer may, as between the transferor and the transferee, be liable to be set aside and notwithstanding that Company may have notice that such instrument of transfer was signed or executed and delivered by the transferor in blank as to the name of the transferee or the particulars of the shares transferred, or otherwise in defective manner and in every such case the person registered as transferee, his executors, administrators and assigns alone shall be entitled to be recognized as the holder of such share and the previous holder shall so far as the Company is concerned be deemed to have transferred his whole title thereto.
No transfer to minor etc.	44.	No transfer shall be made to a person of unsound mind or in favor of a minor.
What transfers to be retained	45.	The instrument of transfer which has been registered shall be retained by the Company.
Notice of refusal to transfer	46.	If the Directors refuse to register the transfer of any shares, the Company shall, within fifteen (15) days from the date of receipt of request by the Company, send to the transferee and the transferor notice of the refusal.
Register may be closed	47.	On giving 21 days prior notice by advertisement in some newspaper circulating in the district in which the registered office of the Company is situated, the transfer books and Register may be closed during such time as the Directors think fit, not exceeding forty-five days in a year, but not exceeding thirty days at a time.
Election under the Transmission Article	48(1)	If the person so becoming entitled under the Articles shall elect to be transmission registered as member in respect of the shares himself, he shall deliver or sent to the Company a notice in writing signed by him stating that he so elects.

	(2)	If the person aforesaid shall elect to transfer the share, he shall testify his election by executing an instrument of transfer of the share.
RIGHTS OF PERSONS
Right of persons entitled to share by way of transmission	49.	The nominee or legal representatives of a deceased member (not being one of several joint holders) shall be the only persons recognised by the Company as having any title to the shares registered in the name of such member. In case of the death of any one or more of the joint holders of any registered shares, the survivors shall be the only person recognised by the Company as having any title to or interest in such shares. But nothing herein contained shall be taken to release Board from obtaining a grant of probate or letters of administration or other legal representation as the case may be from some competent court or authority. Provided nevertheless that in any case where the Board in its absolute discretion think fit, it shall be lawful for the Board to dispense with the production of probatory letters of administration or such other legal representation upon such terms as to indemnify or otherwise as the Board in its absolute discretion may consider necessary.
	50	Any committee or guardian of a lunatic or infant member or any person becoming entitled to transfer of shares in consequence of the death, bankruptcy, insolvency of any member, upon producing such evidence that he sustains the character in respect of which he proposes to act under the Articles or of the title as the Board thinks sufficient, may with consent of the Board (which it shall not be under any obligation to give) be registered as a member in respect of such shares or subject to the regulations as to transfer herein before contained. (The Article is hereinafter referred to as the "Transmission Article").
	51.	A person so becoming entitled under the Transmission Article to a share by reason of the death, lunacy, bankruptcy or insolvency of a member shall, subject to the provisions of Articles or applicable provisions of the Act be entitled to the same dividend and other advantages to which he would be entitled if he were the member registered in respect of the share.  Provided that the Directors may at any time give notice requiring any such person to elect either to be registered himself or to transfer the share and if the notice is not complied within ninety days, the Directors may thereafter withhold payment of all dividends, bonuses or other money payable in respect of the share, until the requirements of the notice have been complied with.

INCREASE AND REDUCTION OF CAPITAL
Increase of capital	52.	The Company in the General Meeting may, from time to time, by ordinary resolution increase the share capital by the creation of new shares of such amount as may be deemed expedient.
Issue of new shares	53.	The new shares shall be issued in terms of relevant provisions of the Applicable Laws upon such terms and conditions and with such rights privileges annexed thereto as the General Meeting resolving upon the creation thereof shall direct and if no direction be given as the Board of Directors shall determine and in particular such shares may be issued with a preferential or qualified right to dividends and in the distribution of assets in the Company and with a right of voting as provided under the Act and shall not except as regard the preference shares be deemed to modify the rights of any existing class of shareholders.
	54.	Before the issue of any new shares, the Company in the General Meeting may determine that the same, or any of them shall be offered in the first instance and either at par or at a premium to all the then members of any class thereof in proportion to the amount of the capital held by them or make any other provision to the issue and allotment of the new shares in terms of applicable laws.
How far new shares to rank with shares in original capital	55.	Except so far as otherwise provided by conditions of issue or by these presents, any capital raised by the creation of further shares, shall be considered part of the then existing share capital and shall be subject to the provisions herein contained with reference to the payment of calls and installments, transfer and transmission, forfeiture, lien, voting, surrender and otherwise. All Equity Shares shall at all times rank pari passu with the existing Equity Shares with respect to all rights including but not limited to, voting rights, bonus and rights issuances, liquidation rights and dividends.
Inequality in number of further shares	56.	If owing to any inequality in the number of further shares to be issued and the number of shares held by members entitled to have the offer of such further shares, any difficulty shall arise in the apportionment of such further shares or any of them amongst the members, such difficulty shall in the absence of any direction in the resolution creating the shares by the Company in General Meeting, be determined by the Board of Directors.

Reduction of Capital	57.	Subject to the applicable provisions of the Act, the Company may from time to time by special resolution reduce its (a) any balance of Capital Redemption Reserve Account; or (b) any balance of share premium account capital in any manner including by paying off capital or canceling capital or which has been lost or is unrepresented by available assets or reducing the liability on the share or otherwise as may seem expedient and capital may be paid off upon the footing that the called-up capital may be cancelled as aforesaid without reducing the normal amount of the shares by the like amount to the extent that the unpaid and callable capital shall be increased by the like amount.
ALTERATION OF CAPITAL
Power to subdivide and consolidate	58	The Company by ordinary resolution may from time to time alter the conditions of the Memorandum of Association that is to say:
	(a)	Increase its share capital by the issue of new shares of such amount as it thinks expedient.
	(b)	Consolidate and divide all or any of its shares into shares of larger amount than its existing shares.
	(c)	Convert all or any of its fully paid-up-share into stock and re-convert that stock into fully paid-up shares of any denomination.
	(d)	Sub-divide shares or any of them into shares of smaller amount than paid is fixed by the Memorandum so however than in the sub-division the proportion between the amount paid and the amount, if any, unpaid on each reduced shares shall be the same as it was in the case of the share from which the reduced share is derived.
	(e)	Cancel any shares which at the date of the passing of the resolution, have not been taken up or agreed to be taken up by any person and diminish the amount of its share-capital by the amount of the shares so cancelled.
Sub-division of shares into stock	59.	Where any share capital is sub-divided, the Company in the General Meeting, subject to the applicable provisions of the Act, may determine that as between the holders of the shares resulting from sub- division, one or more of such shares shall have same preferential or special rights as regards dividend, payment of capital, voting or otherwise.
Power to surrender	60.	Subject to the applicable provisions of the Act, the Directors may accept from any member the surrender on such terms and conditions as shall be agreed for all or any of his share.

CONVERSION OF SHARE INTO STOCK
	61.	The Company may exercise the power of conversion of its shares into stock and vice versa by passing an ordinary resolution and in that case the corresponding clauses of Table 'F' to Schedule 1 of the Act shall apply. The holders of stock may transfer the same or any part thereof in the same manner as, and subject to the same regulations under which, the shares from which the stock arose might before the conversion have been transferred or as near thereto as circumstances admit. Provided that the Board may, from time to time, fix the minimum amount of stock transferable, so, however, that such minimum shall not exceed the nominal amount of the shares from which the stock arose.

Reserves	67.	The Board may subject to the applicable provisions of the Act, before recommending any dividend, set aside any of the portions of the profits of the Company as it thinks proper as reserves which shall at, discretion of the Board, be applicable for any purpose to which the profits of the Company may be properly applied and pending such application may at the like discretion either be employed in the Business of the Company or be invested, in such investments (other than shares of the Company) as the Board may from time to time think fit. The Board may also carry forward any profits which it may think prudent not to divide without setting them aside as a reserve.
PROCEEDING AT GENERAL MEETING
Extra ordinary General Meeting	68.	In addition to any other meetings, a general meeting of the Company shall be held within such interval as specified in the Act, and subject to the applicable provisions of the Act, at such times and places as may be determined by the Board. All general meetings other than 'Annual General Meetings' shall be called 'Extra Ordinary General Meetings'.
	69.	The Board may, whenever it thinks fit, call an Extra Ordinary General Meeting. If at any time there are not within India, Directors capable of acting who are sufficient in number to form a quorum, the Directors present in India may call an Extra Ordinary General Meeting, in the same manner and as nearly as possible as that in which such a meeting may be called by the Board.
	70.	The accidental omission to give notice of any meeting to or the non- receipt of any such notice by any of the members or other persons entitled to receive such notice shall not invalidate any resolution passed at any such meeting.
	71.	No business shall be transacted at the General Meeting of the Company unless a quorum of members is present at the time when the meeting proceeds to commence business. Save as otherwise provided herein, the quorum for the general meetings shall be as prescribed under Section 103 of the Act. No business shall be transacted at any General Meeting unless the requisite quorum shall be present throughout the meeting.
	72.	Any act or resolution which, under these Articles or the Act is permitted or required to be done or passed by the Company in the General Meeting shall be sufficiently so done or passed if effected by an ordinary resolution as defined in the Act unless either the Act or the Articles specifically require such act to be done or resolution to be passed by a special resolution as defined in the Act.

	73.	The Chairman of the Board shall take the chair at every General Meeting. If there be no such Chairman or if at any meeting he shall not be present within fifteen minutes, or is unwilling to act, or if any of the Directors present decline to take the chair, then the members present shall choose one of their members being a member entitled to vote to be the Chairman of the meeting.
	74.	If at the expiration of half an hour from the time appointed for holding a meeting of the Company, a quorum shall not be present, the General Meeting if convened by or upon the requisition of members shall stand dissolved. In any other case, the General Meeting shall stand adjourned on the same day in the next week or if that day is public holiday until the next succeeding day which is not a public holiday at the same time and place or to such other day and at such other time and place in the city or town in which the office of Company is for the time being situate, as the Board may determine, and if at such adjourned Meeting a quorum is not present at the expiration of half an hour from the time appointed for holding the meeting, the members present, shall be a quorum and may transact the business for which the General Meeting was called.
	75.	Every question submitted to a meeting shall be decided, through voting by electronic means in terms of the Applicable Law, the Chairman of the meeting shall be entitled to a second or casting vote in addition to the vote to which he may be entitled as a member.
	76.	The Chairman of the General Meeting may adjourn the same from time to time and from place to place but no business shall be transacted at any adjourned meeting other than the business left unfinished at the meeting from which the adjournment took place. DIVIDENDS
How profits shall be divisible	127.	Subject to the rights of members (if any) entitled to shares with preferential or special rights attached thereto, the profits of the Company which it shall from time to time determine to divide in respect of any year or other period shall be applied in the payment of a dividend on the Equity Shares of the Company, but so that partly paid up share only entitled the holder with respect thereto to such a proportion of the distribution upon fully paid up shares as the amount paid thereon bears to the nominal amount of such share. All Dividends shall be apportioned and paid proportionately or credited as paid on the shares during any portion or portions of the period in respect of which the dividend is paid, but if any share is issued on terms providing that it shall rank for dividend as from a particular date such share shall rank for dividend accordingly. Where capital is paid up in advance of calls upon the footing that the same shall carry interest, such capital shall not, whilst carrying interest, confer a right to dividend or to participate in profits.
Declaration of dividends	128.	The Company in Annual General Meeting may declare a dividend to be paid to the members according to their rights and interest in the profits and may, subject to the applicable provisions of the Act, fix the time for payment.
Restrictions on amount of dividends	129.	No larger dividend shall be declared than that recommended by Directors, but the Company in General Meeting may declare a smaller dividend.
Dividend out of profit only	130.	Subject to applicable laws, no dividend shall be payable except out of profits of the Company for the year or any other undistributed profits and no dividend shall carry interest as against the Company.

What to be deemed net profits	131.	The declaration of the net profits of the Company in the audited annual Accounts for any year shall be conclusive evidence of the profit.
Interim Dividends	132.	Subject to the provisions of Section 123 of the Act, the Board of Directors may from time to time, pay to the members such interim dividends as in their judgment as the position of the Company justifies.
Debts may be deducted	133.	The Directors may retain any dividends payable and bonuses declared on which the Company has lien and may apply the same in or toward satisfaction of the debts, liabilities or engagements in respect of which the lien exists.
Dividend and call together	134.	Any General Meeting declaring a dividend may make a call on the members of such amount as the meeting fixes, but so that the call on each member shall not exceed the dividend payable to him and so that the call be made payable at the same time as the dividend and the dividend may, if so arranged between the Company and the members, be set off against the call subject to the applicable provisions of the Act.
Effect of transfer	135.	A transfer of shares shall not pass the rights to any dividend declared thereto before the registration of the transfer in the Company.
Retention in certain cases up on shares	136.	The Directors may retain the dividends payable in respect of any member for which any other person is under the transmission and is entitled to become a member or in respect of which any person is entitled to transfer until such person shall become a member.
Dividend to joint holders	137.	Any one of several persons who are registered as the joint holders of any share may give effectual receipt for all dividends, bonuses and other payments, in respect of such shares.
Payment by post	138.	Unless otherwise directed in accordance with the Act, any dividend may be paid by cheque or warrant sent through the post to the registered address of the member or person entitled there to, or in the case of joint holder to the registered address of that one whose name stands first on the register in respect of joint holding or to such person and at such address as the member or person entitled or such joint- holders as the case may be, may direct that cheque or warrants so sent shall be made payable to the person or to the order of the person to whom it is sent or to the order of such other person as the member or person entitled or such joint holders as the case may be, may direct.
Unclaimed Dividends	139.	All dividends unclaimed shall be dealt in accordance with the applicable provisions of the Act and the rules made thereunder.

AND THEIR CREDITORS AND SHAREHOLDERS

[For Amalgamation of SATIN INTELLICOMM LIMITED with SATIN CREDITCARE NETWORK LIMITED under Section 391 read with Section 394 of the Companies Act, 1956]

PREAMBLE

- A) SATIN INTELLICOMM LIMITED (herein after referred to as 'SIL') is a company incorporated under the Companies Act, 1956 and having its registered office at 5th Floor, Kundan Bhawan, Azadpur, Commercial Complex, Delhi-110033. The company is engaged in the business of developing software and providing various services relating to information Technology.
- B) SATIN CREDITCARE NETWORK LIMITED (herein after referred to as 'SCCNL') is a company incorporated under Companies Act, 1956 and having its registered office at 306, Lusa Tower, Azadpur Commercial Complex, Delhi-110033. The company is engaged in providing micro finance to small and Medium Enterprises (low income individual) for meeting predominantly their productive requirements. The company went public in June 1996. The company is listed of Delhi, Jaipur and Ludhiana.
- C) The two are group companies and the business of SIL can be supportive in the growth and expansion of SCCNL. The management of the two Companies feels desirable to amalgamate the two entities and consolidate the resources and businesses of the two companies. The proposed merger of SIL and SCCNL, as envisaged in this scheme, is driven by the motive of consolidation of businesses under one entity. The other benefits likely to arise through the proposed amalgamation are as follows :
- I. Synergize operational advantages and achieve economies of scale of operations and elimination of over heads;

- II. Optimum and efficient utilization of capital resources, assets and facilities;
  - III. Enhancement of competitive strengths including financial resources;
  - IV. Consolidation of business and enhancement of economic value addition and shareholder value; and
  - V. Better management and focus on growing the businesses.
- D) It is therefore considered desirable and expedient to amalgamate the said companies and in consideration there of issue equity shares of SCCNL to the shareholders of SIL in accordance with this Scheme pursuant to section 394 and other relevant provisions of the Companies Act, 1956.
